What disappointed you about Keeping Secrets? The narrator was horrible and was inappropriate for the book. I expected to hear an urban author whose voice fit the storyline. Instead, there is a British narrator with a monotone voice. What could Kiru Taye have done to make this a more enjoyable book for you? Get a better reader.

Series: The Essien Series, Book 1. By Kiru Taye. Secrets, Scandals, and Seduction under African skies. The Essiens are the kings of African finance. A close-knit family, their father is the patriarch of a finance dynasty that ranges from retail to investment banking spanning the African continent. Yet all is not as it seems as the three brothers—Felix, Mark and Tony—soon discover when their family is rocked by secrets and scandals.

Smashwords - Keeping Secrets - a book by Kiru Taye
Keeping Secrets was an interesting novel. The first chapters were a little slow, fortunately as the story unfolded the plot and the storytelling was much better. It's easy to tell the writer is not from the US as the phrasing in the book is very proper-Kings English style..
